Washington, Oct. 22—Thereadinet meeting was very brief to an and devoted to department matters. Neither foreign attails nor the Union Pacific foreclosure sale were discussed. Secretary Gage pre-sented the question of the advisibility of all reform in the designs of the United States paper money. There are at present in current uses three classes of government paper money silver certi leates, treasury notes of 1800 and Urited States notes or greenbacks. In cath of theseclasses there are n ne denominations, making 27 in all, cae represented by special des gn. Secretary Gages plan is to have one des gn for the one dollar notes: another for the twos and so on up to the $1,000, the highest. In order that the three classes of paper money may be readily distinguished, the sculs and the numbers in each class will he printed in distinctive colors. The secretary argues. that the new designs would, in a great measure, prevent the raising of notes, as nomination independent of the numerals. The secretary had with him at the cabinet meeting samples of the new designs and al of the members present expressed City of Mexico, Oct. 22. Alaska.

Washington, Oct. 22—The report of John 3. Brady, governor of Alaska, for the past fiscal year has been submitted, o the secretary of the interior. It estimates the present population at 35,000 natives and 10,000 whites predicts that with reindeer transportation, mails can be sent all over Alaska during the winter, and recommends that $100,000 be appropriated for government buildings and $60,000 for schools. It says nothing has so retarded Alaska's substantial growth as the helplessness of settlers to obtain titles to their homes on account of the falure of congress to extend the general laws, and urges congress to create a commission of ve-one senator, one representative; and three bona fide Alaska residents-lo codity laws for A aska. The secretary of the treasury is urged to cordine hunting of sea. o ters to the natives for the white man is not shut off at once, the Aleutes will have to belgare! for by the govern-
